House Rules

1. Where these rules apply. These house rules apply throughout the event site, including all visitor areas and the entire open-air venue.
2. Acceptance of the house rules. By purchasing a ticket and entering the event site, including the open-air venue, visitors agree to these house rules.
3. Security staff and stewards. Visitors must follow all instructions given by security staff and stewards. Security staff and stewards are authorised to exercise the organiser's rights to control access to the venue and enforce these rules.
4. Road traffic and parking. Austrian road traffic regulations apply in areas used by vehicles and in car parks.
5. Valid tickets. Only visitors who can show a valid ticket may remain on the event site.
6. Conduct at the venue. Visitors must maintain peace, order and safety in the open-air venue. They must refrain from disturbing or endangering other visitors.
7. Prohibited items, food and drink. Dangerous or sharp objects such as umbrellas, sticks, fireworks, weapons and similar items are prohibited. Visitors may not bring their own food or drink onto the event site. Glass containers of any kind, including bottles and drinking glasses, are prohibited in the open-air venue because of the risk of injury and applicable safety regulations.
8. Fireworks and other pyrotechnic items. Anyone who sets off rockets or other pyrotechnic items will be reported for causing a public disturbance and removed from the open-air venue without a refund.
9. Pyrotechnics at the event. Trained professionals will operate pyrotechnics during the event in compliance with all requirements laid down by the relevant authorities. The organiser accepts no liability for any damage resulting from their use.
10. Entry checks. Visitors and their bags or other containers will be searched at the entrances to the open-air venue. By entering the security checkpoint, visitors agree to these checks. Personal searches will be carried out by staff of the same gender. Any prohibited items found must be handed to a steward or left somewhere outside the open-air venue. The organiser accepts no liability for items that are confiscated.
11. Sports and play equipment. Visitors may not bring sports or play equipment into the open-air venue. This includes ski boots, skis, snowboards, ski poles and similar equipment.
12. Animals. Only guide dogs, other assistance dogs and working dogs used by the police, rescue services or security staff are permitted in the open-air venue.

House Rules

13. Access routes. All routes must be kept clear at all times, including entrances, exits and routes leading to and from the venue.
14. Advertising and campaigning. Advertising and propaganda of any kind require prior approval from the organiser.
15. Distribution and sales. Distributing leaflets or newspapers or selling goods of any kind requires prior approval from the organiser. All other applicable official requirements still apply.
16. Instructions from security staff and officials. Visitors must follow all instructions given by security staff or officials responsible for overseeing the event.
17. Liability. By entering the open-air venue, visitors acknowledge that the organiser accepts no liability of any kind for damage arising from or in connection with the event, provided the event is conducted in accordance with the requirements laid down by the relevant authorities. In particular, the organiser accepts no liability for harm to health caused by noise, such as excessive sound levels at music events. The organiser also accepts no liability for damage visitors cause to one another, or for belongings lost or taken from their owners through criminal activity within the open-air venue.
18. Waste disposal. Rubbish bags, bins and waste collection points are provided throughout the open-air venue. To help protect the environment, visitors are asked to use the designated bins for their general waste and to avoid littering.
19. Open flames and visitor facilities. Open flames are prohibited in the open-air venue. Visitors must take care when using the facilities provided, including toilets and other sanitary facilities. Visitors are liable for any damage they cause through negligence or deliberate action.
20. Breaches of the house rules. Security staff may remove visitors who breach these rules from the open-air venue. Their tickets will then become invalid for the entire event. Security staff may also carefully remove any entry wristbands the visitors are wearing.
21. Photography and filming. The organisers or people acting on their behalf may take photographs and record video footage during the event. By registering for the event, visitors acknowledge that photographs and footage in which they appear may be used for press coverage and published in various media, including social media, publications and the organisers' websites.

Footwear in alpine terrain. The open-air venue is in an alpine area. All visitors must wear suitable footwear.
